Information for delegates

Start and Finish

Conference opens on Monday at 1.30pm. Coffee and registration will be from 11.30am.
Conference ends at 3.30pm on Thursday 12 September 2019.

Conference Venue

The conference will take place on the campus of the Hanover University of Music, Drama and Media (HMTMH).

Hochschule für Musik, Theater und Medien Hannover in the buildings Neues Haus 1 and Senatssaal (entrance Hindenburgstr. 2-4)

Most of the conference talks will take place in the Senatssaal in Hindenburgstr. 2-4. Performances and lunches will take place in the nearby “Ear Building” (Neues Haus 1), the uniquely-designed main building that is shaped like an ear, opening up to the surrounding wood on its north side. Lunches including vegan and vegetarian choices will be available for delegates to purchase, at the University Canteen which is in the Ear Building.

Hanover University of Music, Drama and Media is Germany's third-largest arts university and one of its most renowned institutions for professional training and academic study in the cultural and artistic field. 360 teachers, amongst them numerous internationally celebrated artists, educationalists and academics, teach nearly 1,500 students from all over the world in 33 study programs and world-class master classes. It arranges up to 500 cultural events open to the public every year.

Delegate fee:

As we were recently granted funding by the Ministry for Science and Culture of Lower Saxony and the Alfred Freiherr von Oppenheim Foundation, we are able to waive the conference fees for all participants. Those who already paid the fee will be reimbursed upon arrival in Hannover. We still have a small amount of bursaries available to support conference attendance. Please contact us if you would like to be considered for a bursary.

For those in Hannover on Sunday

Please join us for dinner at Masa restaurant, Georgstr. 50b, right in the city center:
